

I am completely opposed to the abolishment of regulations that restrict the ownership of multiple media outlets by a one company in. I feel as though the concentration of media is already too extensive in this country. Destroying such restrictions will only serve the interests of an already too pervasive media companies that have a monopoly on information distribution.